WESTERN CAROLINA EMPLOYEES RECEIVE STATE ENVIRONMENTAL AWARDS

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority is proud to announce four employees, Trent Bowles, Don Milner, Ann Simms and Samantha Bartow, recently received awards at the Water Environment Association of South Carolina 2007 conference.

Trent Bowles received the Golden Man Hole Cover Award, which recognizes the promotion of professionalism in Sewer Collection Systems in Operations, Maintenance, Design, Education, Training, Certification or Management and Planning.

Don Milner was presented with the William D. Hatfield Award, given by the Water Environment Federation Member Association to wastewater treatment plant operators for outstanding performance and professionalism.

Both Ann Simms and Samantha Bartow were inducted into the 5S Society South Carolina Chapter, whose members are recognized for contributions of outstanding measure to their organizations. Bartow was also recently elected District Treasurer for the Blue Ridge Foothills District.

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority provides wastewater treatment services to over 400,000 industrial, commercial and residential customers in Greenville County and parts of Anderson, Spartanburg, Pickens and Laurens Counties. Western Carolina operates and maintains 300 miles of major sewer trunk lines and 10 major wastewater treatment facilities.
