Western Carolina Hires
Contract Administrator/Public Relations Coordinator

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority is pleased to announce that Greenville native, Scott Slatton, was hired to fill the new position of Contract Administrator/Public Relations Coordinator. Slatton's duties will include supporting agreements and initiatives between Western Carolina and its 17 sewer subdistricts and municipalities, managing contracts within organizational policies and reporting program progress to executive-level administration through reports and conferences.

Slatton graduated from Winthrop University in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science. His career includes experience as a political writer on Capital Hill, a Human Resource and Information Technology Director, a Town Manager for the Town of Badin, N.C. and a City Manager for the City of Woodruff, S.C. Slatton holds a Masters in Public Administration from George Mason University. He is Chairman of the Middle Tyger District of the Palmetto Scout Council, a member and credentialed manager candidate of the Internal City/County Management Association and a volunteer firefighter with the Woodruff Fire Department.

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority celebrates 75 years of environmental stewardship. The organization provides wastewater treatment services to over 400,000 industrial, commercial and residential customers in Greenville County and parts of Anderson, Spartanburg, Pickens and Laurens Counties. Western Carolina operates and maintains 300 miles of major sewer trunk lines and 10 major wastewater treatment facilities.
