General Electric Recognized for Environmental Stewardship Efforts

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority recognized the longstanding effort for environmental stewardship by General Electric Gas Turbine Manufacturing Operations. The Compliance Excellency Awards are presented annually to local industries that are in complete compliance with the Sewer Use and Pretreatment Regulation. This is the 13th consecutive year that General Electric has won the award and been acknowledged for their outstanding efforts in helping to achieve a cleaner environment in the Upstate. The award was presented to Eric Gleason, environmental engineer, from General Electric.

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority celebrates 75 years of environmental stewardship. The organization serves over 400,000 residential and commercial customers in Greenville County and portions of Anderson, Spartanburg and Laurens Counties by operating and maintaining 300 miles of major sewer trunk lines and 11 major wastewater treatment facilities.
